This spacious villa-styled homette presents with charming character features. Stunning wooden floor boards follow throughout the living areas and large bay windows fitted with quality Australian ceaser shutters are attractive features of this well-presented homette.

Inside offers an inviting front door featuring elegant glass panelling that opens into the spacious, light filled lounge room. This space leads through to the kitchen and dining area that provides access out onto the undercover, paved courtyard, positioned in an attractive garden setting for outdoor entertaining.

Two spacious bedrooms. The master bedroom features separate his and her built in robes, and is accessible to the
