It's a cliché but the surprise is inside of this beautifully renovated and extended home, you must come in to appreciate. You will not be disappointed.

This home is situated within the popular Brighton High School zone, for those wishing to send their children to one of the best public schools in Adelaide.

Originally built in 1945 this home has undergone extensive renovations and an enviable extension has been added. Beautiful timeless jarrah floorboards, decorative ceiling roses and high ceiling feature in the original part of the home.

The extension has been cleverly designed where
