Presented with an attractive facade, these two magnificent homes deceptively stretch well beyond their entry, each unveiling over 500 square metres of luxurious open plan living across three levels in Adelaide's premier beachside location. Incorporating the very best of modern design and construction methods, these spectacular homes are guaranteed to please a family of any size, and standard. Only a short stroll to Jetty Road, spoil yourself with boutique shopping and dine at award-winning cafes, restaurants and bars while enjoying the ultimate cosmopolitan lifestyle of Glenelg.

Functional in design with exceptional quality fixtures and fittings throughout, the ground floor boasts a spacious layout with a combination of formal and informal dining, and living areas perfect for entertaining. Sleek, large glass panelling creates a transparent setting which attracts the light and embraces the landscaped garden and pool area. Stackable doors invite the outside in creating a seamless transition out to the undercover alfresco terrace complete
