Set in a peaceful location on an established street, this home will impress with its perfect combination of style and space, making it ideal for growing families. Conveniently positioned close to public and private schools, as well as sporting facilities and golf course - it is a true lifestyle property.

Quality flooring and a light and bright décor set the tone throughout. The front of the home offers a formal lounge with adjoining study or formal dining room - providing that highly sought after second living space. The centrally located kitchen has a sleek-contemporary design with stone benchtops, recessed sink and stainless steel appliances including dishwasher and walk-in pantry. This space is the hub of the home. The kitchen overlooks the
